Expedition Overview

Mt. Manaslu, the eighth highest mountain in the world, standing proudly at 8,163 meters (26,781 feet). Known as the “Mountain of Spirit,” Manaslu offers a challenging yet incredibly rewarding experience for mountaineers. This magnificent peak provides breathtaking landscapes, rich cultural encounters, and a true sense of adventure.

Mt. Manaslu’s stunning scenery and relatively less technical ascent make it an ideal choice for those venturing into the world of 8,000-meter summits for the first time. Our expertly guided expedition will ensure that you have a safe and unforgettable journey to the summit.

During our expedition, we’ll traverse the picturesque villages, ancient monasteries, and breathtaking landscapes. We’ll engage with the local community, delve into Tibetan culture, and relish unparalleled views of the Himalayas. The climb includes navigating the challenging icefalls and crevasses, showcasing the exhilarating ups and downs of high-altitude climbing.

Our journey typically spans 36+ days and is suited for those in excellent physical condition. We handle all logistics, accommodation, meals, permits, and transportation, so you can focus on the adventure. Trust our experienced team with multiple 8000m summit Sherpa to ensure a safe and memorable expedition to Mt. Manaslu.

Exclusively,

? 2 multiple 8000m summiter sherpa guide per member.

? 6 bottles of oxygen per member.

? Full board logistic service during climb.

? Private wash room and shower tent at Base Camp.

? Helicopter transfer from Kathmandu to Samagaun and a return flight from Base Camp to Kathmandu.
